To the Henderson County Board of Commissioners: June 6, 2011

First, as one of several thousand Korean War Veterans residing in the County, I want to thank you for the recognition and appreciation for the service and sacrifice of PFC Samuel Kelly Watkins. It has been a long trip in time and space for him to reach his final resting place.

6/15/agenda

One of the Agenda items for this meeting is the Notification of Vacancies for County Boards and Committees. I ask your consideration for the three vacancies that will occur as of July 1, 2011, on the Henderson County Heritage Museum Board of Directors. Speaking for Judy Abrell, Chair, and myself, Vice Chair, we recommend the following who have completed appropriate nomination forms.

We recommend that Drew Brannon be appointed for a three year term beginning July 1, 2011. He was elected last January to fill the unexpired term held by Virginia Gambell. Drew has been an active Board participant and was heavily involved in the recent exhibit, "County of Champions". He is a member of the Museum's History Heritage Technology Committee and the Governance Committee.

The other two openings are available because Spence Campbell has completed two three year terms and is ineligible to be reappointed and Karen-Eve Bayne will have completed one three year term and has chosen not to be reappointed.

We recommend that Jack Gable be appointed for a three year term beginning July 1, 2011. Jack is already an active 2 year volunteer with the Museum and is very knowledgeable concerning the Museum's operations and practices. He is a retired professor of history from Long Island University in New York. That educational background will bring much needed expertise to the Museum as a whole and to the History Heritage Technology Committee, chaired by Hilliard Staton, as it develops new programs and exhibits for the Museum. Jack has the strong endorsement of Hilliard.

We recommend that Doris Eklund be appointed for a three year term beginning July 1, 2011. Doris and Bob Eklund are well known philanthropists throughout the county and have received several community service awards for their generosity. Doris was on the original fund raising committee for the Museum and is currently a volunteer member of the Museum's Fund Raising Committee chaired by Judy Abrell. As a board member, she will bring well needed experience and attributes.

As an aside, with these new appointments we will have seven members, counting Commissioner O'Connor, out of eleven who have been on the Board not much more than six months. We continue to need Board members who bring the necessary background to continue to sustain and improve the Museum for our County.

I hope you all read the review of the expanded Civil War Room in the Sunday Times-News. It's just great! Don't miss it!!
