

11.1 Signs Exempt from Regulations

The following signs are exempt from the regulations of this ordinance, except where such sign would be prohibited under Section 11.11.

Signs not visible beyond the boundaries of the property on which they are located.

Signs of a governmental body, including traffic warning or regulatory signs and devices, and signs of non-profit organizations. These signs shall also include other governmental signs including building identification, directional, information, and welcome signs.

Trade names and graphics which are located on gas pumps, newspaper, soft drink and similar vending devices.

Flags, or insignia of any governmental, non-profit, or business organization.

Seasonal/holiday signs and decorations associated with a national or religious holiday.

Warning of danger signs posted by utility or construction companies.

Signs on vehicles indicating the name of a business, unless the primary use of the vehicle is for the display of signs.

Signs required by law, statute or ordinance.

No trespassing, no loitering and similar private warning signs.

Incidental signs.

Commemorative signs.

Special event signs and special event directional signs related to events sponsored by non-profit organizations.

Political Signs.

Construction site identification signs.

(excerpt)

11.11 Prohibited Signs

The following are prohibited within the jurisdiction of this ordinance:

Any sign, which the Administrator determines, obstructs the view of bicyclists or motorists using any street, approach to any street intersection, or which interferes with the effectiveness of or obscures any traffic sign, device, or signal.

Any non-governmental sign that resembles a public safety warning or traffic sign.

Signs, whether temporary or permanent, within any public street or highway right-of-way, with the exception of governmental signage. Signs placed in any right of way are subject to immediate removal and disposal without notice.