ASSISTANT COUNTY MANAGER WINS PRESTIGIOUS AWARD

June 9, 2006 - (Hendersonville, NC) - Henderson County's Assistant County Manager, Selena D. Coffey, recently was awarded the Edwin M. Gill Award upon graduation from the 2005-2006 County Administration Course of the School of Government of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. This award is given in honor of Edwin M. Gill, a former State Treasurer and chairman of the North Carolina Local Government Commission.

The North Carolina Association of County Commissioners presents the prestigious award each year to the class member with the most distinguished record. Ms. Coffey was one of 22 county officials who graduated this year, and is one of over 1,150 officials who have completed the course since it began in 1964.
