Public Input Meeting for Edneyville Community

May 13, 2008 – Henderson County, NC: Residents, business and property owners in the Edneyville community are invited to give input at a meeting for the development of an Edneyville Community Plan. The Public Input Meeting for the Edneyville Community is at 7 p.m. on Tuesday, May 20 at Edneyville Elementary School.

"The public input meeting represents a good opportunity for the people in Edneyville to make their thoughts known and strongly influence the direction of the plan for their community," said Planning Director Anthony Starr.

The Henderson County Board of Commissioners recently appointed citizens to the Edneyville Community Advisory Committee, which will guide the community's planning process. Anthony Starr said, "The planning committee will use the public input received throughout the planning process to develop meaningful recommendations."

A map of the community planning area is available online at www.hcplanning.org by clicking on the Edneyville Community Plan link, and is also printed on flyers posted in the county offices and in the Planning Department at 100 North King Street, Hendersonville.

In addition to the public input meeting, or if unable to attend, residents and business owners in the Edneyville community can also provide input through an online survey available at www.hcplanning.org.

For more information about the community planning process, please contact the Planning Department at 697-4819 [TD (828) 697-4580], or email: planning@hendersoncountync.org.
