Jan 26 Adoption Event a Success

Henderson County Animal Shelter Hosted an Adoption Event Featuring Dog Obedience Demos, Book-Signing by Local Author of "Best Hikes With Dogs: North Carolina," Info on Winter Care, and FREE Hot Chocolate and Refreshments

January 26, 2008 – Henderson County, NC: The Henderson County Animal Services Center adopted out 9 dogs and 3 cats today, January 26, during its celebratory "Winter Care For Companion Animals" Adoption Event which ran from 9:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. at the shelter, 828 Stoney Mountain Road. About 50 people attended the event.

The event featured information on "Winter Care for Companion Animals" and provided FREE hot chocolate, refreshments.

Carol Vaseleski with "Canine Good Citizen" held two dog obedience demonstrations at the event, and local author of "Best Hikes with Dogs: North Carolina," Karen Chavez, held a book signing.

"I am pleased with the turn out and that we were able to assist with finding good homes for several of our animals," said Henderson County Animal Services Director Brad Rayfield.
