Recycle Event Kick-off a Success

More than 30 Vehicles come to Recycle Center for the Kick Off of the County's FREE Asheville Tourists Tickets Give Away Saturday

June 7, 2008 – Henderson County, NC: Eight families who came to recycle left the Henderson County Recycle Center at 802 Stony Mountain Road with FREE tickets to any Asheville Tourists Baseball game on Saturday—all winners thanks to a new campaign Henderson County is embarking on.

More than 30 vehicles brought recycling during the two-hour kick off Saturday (June 7, 2008 from noon – 2 p.m.) of the county's new Recycling Campaign: "Get Caught Recycling and Get Tickets—To the Asheville Tourists!" Henderson County staff and volunteers from ECO also gave out information about recycling and free ice water and juice drinks to those that came.

From now until August 30, 2008 the county's new Recycling Coordinator Ms. Adrienne Outcalt will be making surprise visits to the Henderson County Recycling Center almost daily to randomly catch people recycling. If they are doing it properly, they could win a FREE family 4-pack of tickets to the Asheville Tourists.
