Remember to Recycle Your Old Electronics

Friday, December 23, 2011 – Henderson County, NC: With Christmas right around the corner, many individuals are hoping to find new electronic gifts wrapped just for them, including TVs, computers, games, and new phones.

Every year as new electronics come in, the old go out. This year bring the first holiday season with an electronics disposal ban in our landfills. Office supplies and entertainment related electronics are accepted at the Stoney Mountain Recycling Center. The following items are accepted free of charge: computer equipment, televisions, stereo equipment, and office equipment.

For a guide of electronics you can dispose of or other items that can be recycled please visit www.hendersoncountync.org/engineering/solidwaste/OtherRecyclablesFactSheet.pdf.
