FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Representative Mark Meadows Supports Disaster Relief Efforts by City of Hendersonville and Henderson County

HC-2015-51

Hendersonville, NC - October 8, 2015

Henderson County and the City of Hendersonville began collecting bottled water at Jackson Park this morning at 8:00 a.m. in an effort to provide bottled water to be delivered to Columbia, South Carolina. An area of South Carolina hit especially hard by flooding. Clean water is a necessity in high demand in that area at this time.

Representative Mark Meadows weighed in this morning, "Thank you to the good people of Henderson County for stepping up to assist our neighbors in South Carolina, who've been impacted by Hurricane Joaquin. Our prayers are with South Carolina as they recover from this storm."

To help in this effort, please bring bottled water to Jackson Park today, Thursday, October 8th between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 7:00 p.m. or tomorrow, Friday, October 9th from 8:00 a.m. till 6:00 p.m.

If you have any questions or would like to volunteer to assist in this effort, please contact Henderson County Emergency Services at (828) 697-4527.
