FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

December Programs at the Henderson County Public Library

HC-2017-54

Hendersonville, NC – November 22, 2017

On Friday, December 8th at the Main Library, 2:30 p.m., the Blue Ridge Ringers, a regional hand bell ensemble, will present a concert of Christmas music. Due to the popularity of this program, tickets are issued one hour prior to the performance on a first come first served basis. One ticket per person, all family or group members should be present to ensure tickets for admittance. Doors open at 2:00 p.m. This free program sponsored by the Friends of the Library.

Join Musicke Antique for a concert celebrating the Christmas Holiday season at the Main Library on Monday, December 11th, Noon. Musicke Antiqua performs music from the Medieval and Renaissance through the Baroque and Modern eras, in costume, on replicas of a wide variety of early music instruments, including recorders, double reed instruments, strings and percussion. This concert will include religious and secular music from the early music eras.

The Better Business Bureau of Asheville and WNC present Senior Scams at the Main Library on Thursday, December 14th at 2:00 p.m. Knowledge is the best way to arm yourself or a loved one against scams and schemes such as financial exploitation, fake check schemes, home repair or improvement scams, identity theft, investment schemes, sweepstakes scams, and many others. The Better Business Bureau will educate, inform, and empower attendees by presenting the Top 10 Most Risky Scams and Top 3 Most Risky by Age Range, as well as discussing the role of the BBB in the marketplace, the services they offer and how they can help consumers stay safe.
