FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Judy Moody Comes To Hendersonville, North Carolina

HC-2017-7

Hendersonville, NC – March 2, 2017

Judy Moody comes to a Hendersonville, North Carolina child near you through the NC Kids Digital Library.

Judy Moody Was In A Mood by Megan McDonald and illustrated by Peter H. Reynolds is the first book of the month available at NC Kids Digital Library. The first book in the Judy Moody series will be available for never-ending reading during the month of March with no waiting. No wait and no limits on simultaneous checkouts make the book of the month ideal for classroom and group use.

According to Candlewick Press the publisher of the Judy Moody series: “Judy Moody is a girl full of moods, ambition, and spunk. Join this resourceful third-grader on her quest to protect the rain forest, help sick children, and declare independence in the name of alien rights and the Purse of Happiness! This amusing series will add humor and kindness to your classroom, as it highlights friendship, family, and school-related themes.”

NC Kids Digital Library is sponsored by NCPLDA: NC Public Library Directors Association, NCGA: NC General Assembly, with assistance from State Library of NC, a division of the Department of Natural and Cultural Resources and supported by an IMLS federal LSTA grant.

For more information on having Judy Moody visit your child or classroom, please contact Marcie Dowling, Marketing and Digital Strategy Librarian, Henderson County Public Library at 828-697-4725 x. 2325 or mdowling@henderson.lib.nc.us.
